

Other Brownfields Web Sites

This section lists the web sites of government and nonprofit organizations that address issues relevant to brownfields revitalization. The links provided here are not intended to be and are not endorsement of any service, product, or organization, nor do they necessarily reflect the vision or goals of Ohio EPA.

U.S.EPA Brownfields Information:

U.S. EPA Brownfields Homepage

Grants and Funding

U.S. EPA Region 5 Brownfields

[Brownfields Tax Incentive !\[\]\(e3f8612927870f2e0f9f5989e6dd3064_img.jpg\)](#)

Environmental Finance Program

USEPA TAB Programs (for USEPA grant application assistance)

Other Government Web Sites:

Brownfields Economic Development Initiative \(BEDI\)

Occupational Safety & Health Administration \(OSHA\) Brownfields Page

Not-For-Profit Web Sites:

International City/County Management Association Brownfields Program

Local Government Environmental Assistance Network

Great Lakes Commission

Great Lakes Environmental Finance Center \(GLEFC\)

Northeast Midwest Institute Brownfields Program

The Brownfields Center (Carnegie-Mellon University and the University of Pittsburgh)

Great Lakes Commission

U.S. Conference of Mayors Brownfields Page

Environmental Law Institute's Brownfields Center

Brownfields Technology Support Center

[National Association of Local Government Environmental Professional Report -
Unlocking Brownfields](#)

National Vacant Properties Campaign Creating Opportunity from Abandonment

Center for Hazardous Substance Research is part of the College of Engineering at Kansas State University